ECOVILLAGE YOUTH NETWORK

NextGEN is the youth branch of the Global Ecovillage Network, connection young people through ecovillages, regenerative education, events, eco-projects, and nature-based living. We are united by our youthful spirits, love for the earth, passion for community, and understanding that we need viable, holistic solutions like ecovillages to respond to the current global crisis.

We empower, educate, connect, and inspire young adults to take action, foster community, join ecovillages and build a regenerative world. We focus our work on the strategic areas of inspiration, learning, action, connection, and empowerment.

▶ NextGENOA

- Organized the gathering “Gaia Calling” with 40 earth warriors participating at Gaia Ashram ecovillage in Thailand to share practices for taking care of Mother Earth; followed by the NextGENOA Conference with 15 members making plans, collaborating and strengthening the network.
- Core NextGENOA members joined the European Ecovillage Conference, GENOA Regional Gathering, and Awakening Leadership Training.
- Multiple regenerative youth events like Deep Ecology and Ecovillage Introduction workshops in China, Ecovillage Design Education course in Myanmar, and NextGEN gatherings in South Korea.
